

Pharmacist Interview Questions

For being a competitive pharmacist, you must be knowledgeable because the interview process for a pharmacist job is so strict. Many employers want to hire a pharmacist who meets and exceeds their company standards, so you must be well prepared to answer the most common pharmacist interview questions.

Questions

- What do you consider your most satisfying accomplishment as a pharmacist?
- How do you rate your success in the work?
- Why did you choose pharmacy as a career?
- What was the most interesting work assignment you received?
- What approaches do you use to make decisions?
- What skills do you think are important for success in this job position?
- Which were the limitations of your recent position?
- How do you measure your personal success?
- How do you respond to deadlines?
- How do you handle stress in your daily work?
- What is the way to organize your daily activities?
- Describe the responsibilities of a pharmacist.
- What are your strengths as a professional pharmacist?
- Describe your ideal position according your long-term career plan.
- How do you face changes at work?
- What is the way to communicate with your subordinates or superiors?
- Did you ever successfully combine business with the pharmacist's profession?
- Are you a computer literate, with communication and self-presentation abilities?
- Are you familiar with record keeping procedures?
- What are your skills and strength as a team player?
- Here is a case describing a common drug interaction. How would you resolve the problem?
- What subjects did you find most interesting when you were studying for your Phar.D.?
- How would you deal with a difficult customer?
- How do you spot drug seeking behavior?
- You cannot read the prescription. What do you do?
- What do you consider to be the most positive impact of pharmacy?
- What do you think pharmacy's greatest challenges are in the future?
- What are the most important attributes of a pharmacist?
- Could you describe a situation with an irate patient? How did you handle it?
- How will you resolve a conflict between you and a colleague?
- How would you ensure that different treatments are compatible?
- What things do you need to assure yourself about before dispensing prescription medicines to a customer?
- How do you keep up to date with current pharmacy practice, new drugs and trends in the industry?
- Why should we hire you?
- Do you have any questions?