IV - Read the following text carefully and then select the option which best completes the following items. Text One

In the most well-written English texts, every paragraph deals with a specific aspect of a topic. The first sentence of a paragraph usually tells the reader what the rest of the paragraph is about so when you are trying to identify the main idea of a paragraph, you should read the first sentence carefully. Then, keeping the idea of the first sentence in mind, you should quickly check the rest of the paragraph, picking up only some of the words. This kind of the reading is called skim reading or skimming. Using this technique you will have a general idea of what the writer is saying about the topic.

- a) a standard text
- b) a good hand writing
- c) a well known text
- d) an easy text

24- According to the passage , ..... could be a good key to understand the whole paragraph.

- a) the last sentence
- b) main idea
- c) general idea
- d) the first sentence of a paragraph

25- When you read a paragraph quickly, you pick up only some of the words. This type of reading is .....

- a) quick reading
- b) skimming
- c) scanning
- d) cramming

26- In a well-written text , the general idea of a paragraph must be about the ..... of the paragraph.

- a) writer
- b) topic
- c) main idea
- d) skimming

27 - Using reading ....., helps you to understand the main idea of the paragraph easily and rapidly.

- a) quickly
- b) specific aspect
- c) careful
- d) techniques
